

Jawaharlal Nehru Port Privatisation Project, India

Bird's-eye view of the existing port of Jawaharlal.

The Company serves as consulting engineer on consulting services for MAERSK INDIA, Ltd in connection with preparation of a bid for operation of the container terminal.

The services consist of:

1. Site inspection and collection of available data and information
2. Geotechnical and other technical assessments
3. Planning of new terminal
4. Conceptual design of the terminal
5. Cost estimates of the recommended development scheme.

Project period: 1996

Client: MAERSK INDIA Ltd.

Financing: The Client